

To: McComb, Martin[McComb.Martin@epa.gov]
Cc: Dhieux, Joyel[Dhieux.Joyel@epa.gov]; Cristiano, Gina[Cristiano.Gina@epa.gov]; Ostrander, David[Ostrander.David@epa.gov]
From: Hestmark, Martin
Sent: Fri 8/7/2015 1:51:17 PM
Subject: Re: Quick Timeline

Marty Can we find out whether Hayes has the gold king discharge diverted to treat? Is it still flowing at 1200 gpm and is it yellow and are we setting up to divert and treat?
Sent from my iPhone

On Aug 7, 2015, at 7:48 AM, McComb, Martin <McComb.Martin@epa.gov> wrote:

Hi Joan,

This is what I can pull together on short notice. I hope it helps, let me know if you would like us to flesh this out more.

M

8/5/15

Blowout Occurs (10:30am)
Safety of On Site Personnel is Secured
State, County, City and Tribe are Notified
Downstream Water Intakes are Notified
EPA Issues First Press Release
EPA Begins Sampling
Plume Reaches Silverton

8/6/15

EPA Stand Up REOC
HQs, R6 and R9 are Notified
Animas is Closed to Recreational Users
Durango Treatment Plant is Secure per Reports from Water Program
Plume Reaches Durango
EPA Deploys Additional OSC, ASPECT, Personnel

EPA Issued PolRep

8/7/15

ASPECT Flyover
Sampling and Monitoring Data is Available